Re: United States v. Cassandra Cean
Criminal Docket No. 11-449 (S-1) (SJ)

Dear Judge Johnson:

On January 11, 2018, this Court adopted the report and recommendation of Magistrate Judge Raymond Reyes to reduce the awarded restitution amount from $1,205,355.00 to 243,148.51. However, the United States Attorney's Office has not requested defendant's presence before this Court for imposition of sanctions. Despite AUSA Maria Cruz Melendez's representation on April 26, 2017 that if Your Honor adopted said report and recommendation defendant would be requested to appear for an imposition of sanctions. Although I have served over four years in prison free of incidents or infractions, I will continue to experience difficulties gaining opportunities and programming accessible to inmates with lower security levels and lower restitution. In addition, the Department of Justice's judgment of $1,205,355 remains active against me in the courts, county clerk records, as well as in the Bureau of Prisons records.

Thus, I humbly follow up with my letter on October 29, 2018 and motion on May 2, 2018 for an imposition of sanctions to correct this matter. However, if this Court is unable to grant my request for a court date for the imposition of sanctions, at the very least, I humbly request that my J & C be amended to reflect this Court's January 11, 2018 decision, reducing the awarded restitution amount from $1,205,355 to $243,148.51.

Thank for your consideration of this request.

Sincerely,

Cassandra Cean
